Bridging Industry and Academia to Tackle Responsible Research and Privacy Practices

November 2-3, 2017 • Facebook Offices
770 Broadway, New York, NY

Presented by

BENTLEY UNIVERSITY
Data
Innovation
Network

FUTURE OF PRIVACY FORUM

Department of Computer Science
UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

Workshop Format

This two-day workshop will host 80 participants across industry, civil society, and academia in addressing the workshop themes posed above. Additional themes identified by the group may be added.

Thursday Nov 2, 2017

• 8 – 9 AM: arrive, coffee and breakfast
• 9 – 10 AM: Keynote from Facebook
• 10 – 11 AM: Advisory board panel discussion
• 11 – 12 PM: Workshop introductions and large group discussion, form small groups for later break-outs
• 12 – 1 PM: Lunch (catered)
• 1 – 2:30 PM (Working Session 1 – Scoping): Small group break-out sessions. Groups will identify key problems to tackle and create a document outlining potential plans/outcomes that will be shared to larger group.
• 2:30 – 3:30 PM: Presentations and regroup; coffee and snacks
• 3:30 – 5 PM (Working Session 2 – Iterating 1): Small group break-out to iterate on Working Session 1 plan/outcome. Groups will then disseminate a document outlining their outcomes so that all participants can review on their own time in the evening.

Friday Nov 3, 2017

• 9 – 11 AM: Large group gathering to summarize outcomes and to provide constructive feedback.
• 11 – 12 PM (Working Session 3 – Iterating 2): Small group break-out session to address group feedback.
• 12 – 1 PM: Lunch
• 1 – 3 PM (Working Sessions 4 – Final Product): Small groups to write goal-specific proposals for forging new collaborations among workshop participants. Identify mode of dissemination (e.g., manuscript, conference presentation, research project, workshop), timeline, and budget proposal, where applicable.
• 3 – 5 PM (Presentations): Large group gathering to share final outcomes. 10-min presentations with Q/A.