Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors
FPF Education and Innovation Foundation
Washington, D.C.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of FPF Education and Innovation Foundation (FPF EIF), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to FPF EIF's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of FPF EIF's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FPF EIF as of December 31, 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

To the Board of Directors
FPF Education and Innovation Foundation

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited FPF Education and Innovation Foundation's 2014 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated November 6, 2015. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2015

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

FPF Education and Innovation Foundation (FPF EIF) was incorporated in 2011. FPF EIF is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The programs of FPF EIF fall into the following areas:

Big Data: FPF EIF, in partnership with Washington & Lee Law School, hosted a workshop, a day-long, immersive event that focused the discussion on ethical review mechanisms for data collected in corporate, non-profit, and other non-academic settings. Attendees had diverse backgrounds and come from a variety of different areas, from academia to business, and tackled important questions on ethical challenges posed by potential new uses of data; examined current processes and procedures from various fields; and contributed to a framework for new ethical review mechanisms and structures. Next steps include review of the National Privacy Research Strategy, and application of data ethics programs to support those research priorities.

Education Privacy: Data-driven innovations and the use of new technologies are bringing advances in teaching and learning but are also generating concerns about how student data is collected and used. FPF EIF is working with stakeholders on efforts to ensure responsible practices. FPF EIF expanded the Student Privacy Pledge enrolled companies from 60 to over 200; hosted the Student Privacy Symposium – a daylong event to focus on benefits, concerns, and civil rights aspects of student data privacy issues – and created a variety of resources and papers for student data privacy topics.

Consumer Wellness and Wearables: A wide variety of mobile apps, fitness and activity trackers, and connected medical devices are enabling individuals to generate and manage their own health information and other fitness and wellness metrics at ever increasing rates. FPF EIF is convening a group to shape approaches that will ensure practical privacy protections for this data while supporting consumer benefits.

Income Taxes

FPF EIF is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code). In addition, FPF EIF has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code. No provision for income taxes is required for the year ended December 31, 2015, as FPF EIF had no net unrelated business income.

FPF EIF requires that a tax position be recognized or derecognized based on a "more-likely-than-not" threshold. This applies to positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FPF EIF does not believe its financial statements include, or reflect, any uncertain tax positions. FPF EIF's Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, is subject to examination by the taxing authorities for three years after filing.

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements are presented on the accrual basis of accounting. Consequently, revenue is recognized when earned and expenses when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and equivalents consists of amounts in checking accounts.

Contributions Receivable

Contributions receivable are considered to be fully collectible by management and, accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is considered necessary.

Revenue Recognition

FPF EIF reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or the purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Functional Expense Allocation

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Donated Services

Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by FPF EIF. For the year ended December 31, 2015, FPF EIF received donated services of approximately $10,000 for the purpose to Advance Data Education.

Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements.

Reclassifications

Certain 2014 amounts have been reclassified for comparative purposes.

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Prior Year Summarized Information

The financial statements include certain prior year summarized comparative information as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with FPF Education and Innovation Foundation's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014, from which the summarized information was derived.

2. CONCENTRATIONS

For the year ended December 31, 2015, 59% of all grant and contribution revenue was received from two donors and 73% of accounts receivable was due from two donors.

FPF EIF maintains a cash balance at a financial institution in the Washington, DC, metropolitan area. The account at this institution is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to certain limits. At times during the year, the FPF EIF's cash balance exceeded the FDIC insurance amount. Management believes the risk in this situation to be minimal.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the year ended December 31, 2015, FPF EIF shared employees and office space with the Future of Privacy Forum (FPF), a not-for-profit organization exempt under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code). FPF EIF reimbursed FPF for certain general and administrative expenses. As of the end of the year, FPF EIF owed FPF approximately $305,000. FPF made a $400,000 contribution to FPF EIF for the year ended December 31, 2015. The contribution was for general support.

4. TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

Temporarily restricted net assets were available for the following purpose as of December 31, 2015:

Purpose	Amount
Ensuring a Balanced Approach to Education Data Privacy	$ 383,966
