"I treat FPF like the fourth member of my team."

— FPF MEMBER, PRIVACY EXECUTIVE

Network With Peers

The Privacy Executives Network (PEN) connects senior leaders across sectors and regions to address today's toughest privacy and AI governance challenges.

- Benchmark before you act — Real-time peer discussions at bi-monthly virtual and quarterly industry-specific calls.
- Build relationships that matter — Regional gatherings in 10 major global cities.
- Go straight to the source — Closed-door access to executive convenings and an online discussion group, reserved for senior corporate members — no vendors.

Anticipate What's Next

FPF delivers the intelligence and training your team needs to move first on privacy and AI regulation — not react last.

- Cut through the noise — Ongoing legislative tracking and compliance-focused analysis.
- Skip the guesswork — Cross-jurisdictional insight from FPF experts across the U.S., Europe, Africa, APAC, and LATAM.
- Upskill your team — 8+ live trainings annually, plus on-demand sessions on AI, ad tech, de-identification, and more.

Tap a Global Community

Multi-seat access across your organization to FPF's Member Portal — real-time collaboration with peers and experts.

- Scale access, not cost — 15 seats, scaling to unlimited by level, across 8+ specialized communities, including AI & ML, Ad Tech, Health, U.S. Legislation, and Youth Privacy.
- Stay ahead, together — Regular calls, briefings, and updates on emerging developments in policy and governance.
- Consolidate your resources — One membership standing in for research, training, and counsel otherwise spread across multiple organizations.

The cost of being uninformed rarely shows up early — it presents as a missed regulatory deadline, a policy built without benchmarking, or an enforcement action you didn't see coming.
